

Are you a minister or otherwise involved in Christian ministry?

Have you considered studying for an MA?

Would you like to do so in a prestigious university in the centre of London?

And would you like the option of a modular programme, so that you can choose from a range of courses?

Master's Programmes in Theology & Ministry at King's College London

The new Theology and Ministry MA Programmes at King's College London offer unrivalled diversity of course content and teaching expertise. Designed in a unique cooperation between theologians and ministers, the programmes combine intellectual depth with a wide range of practical issues - from contemporary worship to Fair Trade. They will challenge, inspire and refresh anyone engaged in Christian ministry, from ministers and ordinands, to laity and members of faith based organisations.

If you are seeking new insights in your day-to-day ministry, if you want frameworks to understand the times in which you live, this integrated degree programme is for you. We will throw new light on the nature and context of Christian mission in modern society. We aim to equip others to do the same.

We are now offering the following Master's degrees (subject to approval):

- MA in Youth Ministry
- MA in Theology, Politics and Faith Based Organisations
- MA in Contemporary Ecclesiology
- MA in Contemporary Worship
- MA in Christian Education
- MA in Pastoral Ethics
- MA in Bible and Ministry
- MA in Mission and Ministry in the Modern Age

For more information please visit www.kcl.ac.uk/education

Programme Director: Dr. Dominic Erdozain

Email: dominic.erdozain@kcl.ac.uk

Tel: 0207 848 2304

For admissions information please email sarah.2.moore@kcl.ac.uk or programme.enquiries@kcl.ac.uk